

SCAA MEMBER INVITATIONAL EXHIBITION POLICY

SCAA schedules two or three Member Invitational Exhibitions annually, featuring 8-10 current SCAA members. Artists are selected to include a variety of 2D and 3D media.

Selection is based on all of the following:

- Current SCAA membership
- Acceptance into a previous juried SCAA exhibition
- Quality and consistency of members' work

How Artists Participate

- Artists are invited by SCAA Exhibits Director, or,
- Interested artist members may apply to Exhibitions Director at (401) 783-2195 or exhibits@southcountyart.org.

Artwork

- Although there are no size restrictions for artwork, artists may exhibit approximately eight pieces, depending upon the works' scale.
- 2D work must be wired and ready for hanging. Framed work should enable a harmonious grouping.
- Generally, work should not have been exhibited previously at SCAA. However, previously exhibited work may be included when it completes a series or body of work which the artist chooses to include.

Fees / Requirements

Artists are required to submit the following according to deadlines set by Exhibit's Director*:

- To submit an image of their work for the invitation card and promotional purposes (at 300 dpi or greater)
- To contribute $75 fee for exhibition costs
- To supply a food item or wine for the opening reception (organized among participants)
- To submit an artist statement and/or resume for visitor viewing.

Artists may supply business cards or other personal artist advertising for the show's duration.

Sales

- "Sets" of pottery or sculpture must be priced only as a set.
- "Not for sale" work may not exceed more than one quarter of a participant's work.
- SCAA retains a 30% commission on each sale.

Liability

Although SCAA takes all possible care in handling work, SCAA is not responsible for any loss or damage to delivered/submitted artwork. SCAA recommends that artists insure their work independently. *If artists miss deadlines for photos etc. images of work may not be in time for inclusion in promotional materials.